About us

First Coast, named after a small village in Wester Ross, is an independent neighbourhood restaurant in Edinburgh. Since opening 17 years ago we've built a strong reputation for serving top quality modern Scottish food at reasonable prices in a relaxed and friendly environment.

With ingredients sourced as locally as possible, we focus on using bold flavours and unfussy presentation to create fresh, tasty, homemade food while still incorporating flavours from around the world. We have a number of menus on offer to cater for a variety of needs and price ranges. Our idea has always been to be the ideal place where anyone can come in both for their tea or for a more special occasion.

We believe a well-rounded drinks list is a must to complement our menus, and like our food it is designed to cater for a variety of tastes and budgets. Our wine list is compiled of 20 wines – all of which we offer by the glass – which is backed up by a good selection of Scottish beers, gins, and a newly expanded whisky list. Alongside our core list we have a regularly changing specials menu. We use this to try some more expansive drinks such as craft beers that our staff have tried and been keen to bring to our restaurant, natural and organic wines, and locally distilled gins.

Who we're looking for

We are looking for an enthusiastic person with a passion for the restaurant trade, who is looking to take the next step in their career. Management experience is not necessary, we will provide all the necessary training and are willing to invest time in your progression, however a background working in restaurants is preferred. We are looking for a driven, hardworking, creative individual with an attention to detail and a love for food, drink and hospitality, but most importantly a desire to learn.

As the Assistant Manager your role would include the daily running of all aspects of the restaurant in lieu of the General Manager. You will be involved in everything from hiring and training new members of the team, stock control and back of house office duties, working with suppliers to create our ever-evolving wine and drinks list, and developing our social media and marketing campaigns. You will ensure that the overall quality and profitability of the restaurant, along with service standards and staff motivation, are maintained and are continually improving.

This is a fantastic opportunity to join the team of one of Edinburgh's top independent restaurants. The job is 7 shifts over 6 days (3 ½ days a week), with the restaurant closed on Sunday's. Staff meals are provided daily, and we earn good tips. If you are interested in the position, please contact Sarah at the above address.
